Leave Rules: - (1) Leave of absence from duty cannot be claimed as a matter of right and may, on application by a teacher of a college, be granted only when satisfactory grounds have been shown. When the exigencies of service so require, the authority competent to grant leave may refuse leave of any description or when any such leave is granted, revoke such leave or part thereof, (2) No teacher who is under suspension shall be granted any leave. (3) Absence without leave shall render a teacher subject to such disciplinary action as may be provided in the “Disciplinary Rules” prescribed by Statutes,

(1) Leave shall ordinarily commence on the date with effect from which it is actually availed of and terminate on the day preceding the date of resumption of duty: Provided that Sundays or holidays may be prefixed or suffixed to leave, so, however, that for the purpose of prefixing or suffixing to leave holidays exceeding three days or a college vacation, previous sanction of the authority competent to grant the leave shall be obtained.

(2) Except with the previous permission of the authority granting the leave no teacher on leave may return to duty before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him.

(1) Casual leave on full pay may be allowed to a teacher of a college up to a maximum of fifteen days in any one academic year but not more than five days at a time. (2) Casual leave may be prefixed or suffixed to Sundays but not to any other holidays or to vacations or to any other kind of leave. (3) All casual leave to which any teacher of a college may be entitled during any academic year shall cease to be due to him at the end of such academic year and cannot be accumulated or taken over or brought forward to any other academic year.

Every teacher of a college shall be entitled to leave on full pay, hereinafter referred to as earned leave, — (a) during the first seven academic years of service, to the extent of 15 days for every twelve months of active service, and (b) from the eighth year of service onwards to the extent of thirty days for every additional twelve months of active service: provided that when the earned leave due amounts to one hundred and twenty days revised at three hundred days.

Absence from duty of a teacher of a college on account of academic work elsewhere approved by the Governing Body of the college or on account of obligations in regard to the National Cadet Corps or the Social Service Camp or similar other obligations shall be deemed to be absence on duty and shall not be counted towards casual or earned leave.

Statutes shall not apply in cases where, on compassionate ground, a wife, son, daughter, or dependent of any employee-both teaching and non-teaching-dying in harness is to be offered a job consistent with his/her qualifications. S/he shall have precedence over others in the matter of appointment or placement, as the case may be.

Leave Rules: (a) Leave cannot be claimed as of right. When the exigencies of service so require discretion to refuse or revoke 125 leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it. (b) Leave ordinarily begins on the day on which transferor charge is affected and ends on the day preceding that on which duty is resumed. Holidays may be prefixed or affixed or both prefixed and affixed to Casual and Quarantine Leave. (c) Leave (except casual and quarantine leave) either be affixed or prefixed to holidays, but cannot both be prefixed and affixed to holidays. When leave (except casual and quarantine leave) is combined with a holiday by both prefixing and affixing it to the holiday, the holidays shall be reckoned as leave in calculating the amount of leave on full pay that may be admissible at a time. (d) An employee on leave shall not return to duty before the expiry of leave granted to him without permission of the authority which sanctioned the leave. (e) No person who has been granted leave on medical certificate for infectious diseases shall return to duty without producing a medical certificate of fitness. (f) Unless extension is granted, a person who remains absent after the end of his leave is entitled to no leave salary for the period of such absence. Willful absence from duty after the expiry of leave may be treated as misconduct calling for disciplinary action. (g) Subject to the foregoing general principles the following kinds of leave may be granted to the employees; —

(i) Casual leave (ii) Earned leave (iii) Half-pay leave (iv) Commuted leave (v) Medical leave (vi) Leave in extraordinary circumstances (vii) Maternity leave (viii) Hospital leave (ix) Quarantine leave (x) Leave preparatory to retirement (xi) Special disability leave. (xii) (a) Casual leave for short periods not exceeding five days at a time or twelve days in a financial year, may be granted to an employee. (b) Casual leave cannot be combined with any other kind of leave or vacations and the balance will not be carried from one year to another. An employee on casual leave will be treated as on duty.

(c) Employees of a college shall be treated as working in non-vacation institutions and all whole-time employees shall earn as earned leave one-eleventh of the period spent on duty provided that a person shall cease to earn such leave when the earned leave due amounts to 120 days. (e) All whole-time employees may be granted leave on half-pay for twenty days for each completed year of service subject to a maximum period of 180 days during the entire period of service on medical grounds on production of medical certificate; () Provided that a permanent employee will be entitled to commute the half-pay leave that he has earned to full-pay leave and such full pay leave shall not exceed 90 days in the whole period of service. () Provided that no commuted leave may be granted unless the authority competent to sanction the leave has reason to believe that the employee will return to duty on its expiry. (f) If no leave is due on any account, an employee may be granted leave for a period not exceeding 180 days as special leave during the whole period of service for medical treatment of the employee concerned, such leave may be debited against the half- pay leave which the employee may earn subsequently. (g) Before sanctioning such leave, the appointing authority should satisfy himself that the employee concerned is likely to return from leave and continue in service for a sufficient period to earn the leave granted. (h) When no other leave is by rule admissible, a permanent employee, in extraordinary circumstances may be granted leave without pay for such period as may be determined by the college authorities, but an employee shall not be allowed to enjoy such leave for more than 90 days at a time. (i) An employee who is disabled by injury accidentally sustained in course of the due performance of his official duties or by illness resulting from the performance of any particular duty which has the effect of causing or aggravating his illness or causing injury beyond the ordinary risk attaching to the post may be allowed special disability leave for a maximum period of twenty-four months. (j) Maternity leave may be granted to a female-employee for a period up to the end of three months from the date of its commencement or to the end of six weeks from the date of confinement whichever is earlier. (k) An employee may, on production of a certificate from hospital, be allowed hospital leave for a period up to three months during any period of three years, while undergoing treatment in hospital for illness or injury caused or sustained in course of his official duties if, such illness or injury be caused or sustained because of risks directly involved in the performance of such official duties. (l) Quarantine leave may be granted on the basis of a medical certificate for a period not exceeding 21 days, or, in exceptional circumstances, 30 days.
