Report of the Basanta Utsab, 2025

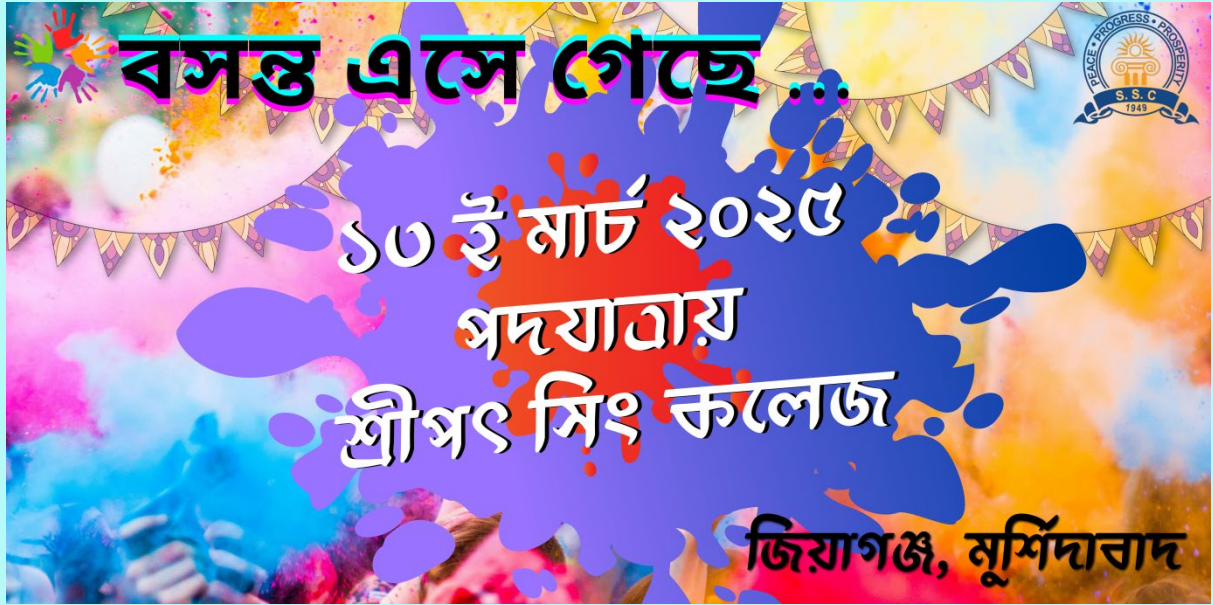

On March 13, Sripat Singh College organized the Basanta Utsab. The festival commenced at 12 noon with a grand procession. After parading through Jiaganj town, the main event began at 1 PM on the college's own stage, Vidhayak Manch.

On the stage, the principal, Dr. Kamal Krishna Sarkar, IQAC Coordinator Dr. Sagar Simlandy, Teachers' Council Secretary Dr. Mitali Tikader and Associate Professor Dr. Prasenjit Nanda were warmly welcomed. They inaugurated the cultural program by lighting the lamp. Professor Dr. Swapan Kumar Sarkar highlighted the historical significance of Basant Utsav. Special guest Mr. Pradip Chopra congratulated the students with a brief speech.

Students then invoked the vibrant spirit of spring through dance and music. A total of 16 students participated in the cultural performances. After the vote of thanks, Professor Mitali Tikader announced the conclusion of the nearly two-hour-long cultural program. Finally, the celebration ended with students and faculty applying colors to each other, marking the joyous occasion of Basanta Utsab.
