ON 'TOWARDS CHARACTER BUILDING'

REPORT

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL
SRIPAT SINGH COLLEGE

On May 29, 2024, Sripat Singh College hosted a One Day State Level Seminar on "Towards Character Building" in partnership with the IQAC & Department of Sanskrit, Sripat Singh College, and the Department of History, Berhampore Girls' College. The event commenced at 11:30 A.M. at the college's Rabindra Sabhagriha. The seminar was organized under the leadership of Dr. Sagar Simlandy, who served as the Organising Secretary. Dr. Debraj Chakraborty and Mr. Tutan Barman jointly convened the event. Dr. Kamal Krishna Sarkar, the Principal of Sripat Singh College, played a crucial role as a patron, emphasizing the institution's dedication to promoting character development among students and the broader community.

The seminar was further enriched by the participation of distinguished resource persons, including Swami Vedatitananda from Ramakrishna Mission Shilpamandira, Belur Math, and Braja Kishore Ghosh, the Coordinator of the Value Education Programme at Ramakrishna Mission Swami Vivekananda's Ancestral House & Cultural Centre. These esteemed speakers brought their vast experience and insights into the discussions, providing a deep understanding of character building.

The collaborative efforts between the departments and the high-caliber speakers made the seminar a significant event, offering profound insights into the importance of character building. This initiative aligns with Sripat Singh College's mission to enhance the holistic development of its students, preparing them to be well-rounded individuals.

Throughout the seminar, various aspects of character building were explored, focusing on its relevance in contemporary society. The discussions highlighted the need for a value-based education system that not only imparts academic knowledge but also fosters moral and ethical values. The resource persons emphasized the role of educators in shaping the character of students and the importance of instilling virtues such as honesty, integrity, and compassion.

Swami Vedatitananda shared insights from the teachings of the Ramakrishna Mission, emphasizing the importance of self-discipline, spiritual growth, and service to humanity in character building. His perspective provided a spiritual dimension to the discussions, highlighting how character development is intertwined with personal and spiritual growth..

Braja Kishore Ghosh discussed the practical aspects of implementing value education in academic institutions. He shared success stories and best practices from the Ramakrishna Mission's Value Education Programme, illustrating how structured programs can effectively inculcate values in students. His presentation underscored the importance of a systematic approach to character building, integrating it into the curriculum and extracurricular activities.

The seminar concluded with a session for questions and answers, allowing participants to engage directly with the speakers. This interactive segment provided clarity on various issues related to character building and enabled a deeper understanding of the concepts discussed.

In conclusion, the One Day State Level Seminar on "Towards Character Building" was a resounding success, thanks to the collaborative efforts of Sripat Singh College, the IQAC, the Department of Sanskrit, and the Department of History, Berhampore Girls' College. The seminar not only highlighted the significance of character development but also provided practical insights and strategies for implementing value-based education, contributing significantly to the holistic development of the participants.
