Report on Parent-Teacher Meeting regarding NAAC Peer Team Visit

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Sripat Singh College organized a significant parent-teacher meeting on Saturday, July 27, 2024, at 12 noon. The meeting was held at Rabindra Sabhagriha (Room No: 5), aiming to discuss the upcoming visit of the NAAC Peer Team. This session was crucial for ensuring that all stakeholders, especially parents, are aware of and prepared for the NAAC accreditation process.

The meeting was graced by the august presence of several key figures from the college. Dr. Kamal Krishna Sarkar, the Principal of Sripat Singh College, delivered the welcome address, highlighting the importance of the NAAC visit and how it impacts the college's future. Dr. Sagar Simlandy, the IQAC Coordinator, provided insights into the preparations made by the IQAC for the visit and the role of parents and students in this process. His speech emphasized the collective effort required to achieve a successful NAAC accreditation.

Dr. Prasenjit Nanda, the NAAC Coordinator, elaborated on the specific criteria and parameters that the NAAC Peer Team would assess during their visit. He discussed the significance of parental involvement in supporting their children's academic and extracurricular activities, which are critical components of the NAAC evaluation. Dr. Amal Modak, TCS of the college, spoke about the technical and infrastructural readiness of the college, ensuring that all facilities meet the standards expected by the NAAC.

Dr. Abdul Kader Ahmed, the Convenor of the Platinum Jubilee Celebration Committee, concluded the meeting by urging parents to encourage their children to participate actively in college events and maintain a disciplined academic routine. He stressed the importance of the Platinum Jubilee year as a milestone that aligns with the college's vision for excellence. The meeting ended with an open forum where parents could ask questions and provide feedback, fostering a collaborative environment between the college administration and the parents.

Overall, the meeting served as an essential platform for transparent communication and active engagement among all stakeholders, setting a positive tone for the forthcoming NAAC Peer Team visit.
