Report on One Day State Level Seminar on "Rakhaldas Bandyopadhyay: Jibon O Sadhana"

A One Day State Level Seminar titled "Rakhaldas Bandyopadhyay: Jibon O Sadhana" was organized on 12th April 2025 at 11:30 A.M. in the Rabindra Sabhakaksha of Sripat Singh College. The event was jointly hosted by the Department of History, Heritage Club, and IQAC of Sripat Singh College, in collaboration with the Murshidabad Zilla Itihas O Sanskriti Charcha Kendra. The objective of the seminar was to revisit and reflect on the remarkable life and academic contributions of Rakhaldas Bandyopadhyay, an eminent archaeologist and scholar from Murshidabad, whose pioneering discovery of Mohenjo-daro left an indelible mark on Indian historiography.

The program commenced under the gracious patronage of Smt. Shaoni Singha Roy, President of the Governing Body of Sripat Singh College. Dr. Kamal Krishna Sarkar, Principal of the college, welcomed the participants and emphasized the importance of preserving and promoting regional history. He remarked that such initiatives not only highlight the achievements of forgotten heroes but also deepen our understanding of cultural heritage.

The seminar was graced by a panel of distinguished speakers. Dr. Abdul Kader Ahammed, renowned academician delivered a thought-provoking address on the colonial context of early Indian archaeology and Bandyopadhyay's critical role in asserting indigenous scholarship. Dr. Swapan Kumar Sarkar reflected on Rakhaldas's academic rigor and the silent sacrifices he made in his pursuit of truth and antiquity. Mr. Uttam Ghosh, noted educator, shared his insights on the socio-political implications of Rakhaldas's findings and how they challenged Eurocentric historical narratives. Renowned regional historian PrakashDas Biswas enriched the audience with his observations on the lesser-known dimensions of Rakhaldas Bandyopadhyay's life,

Dr. Sagar Simlandy offered a moving narrative of Rakhal Das Bandyopadhyay's life, portraying him as a tragic yet heroic figure whose dedication to uncovering the past was both inspiring and heartbreaking. The scholarly discussions were further enriched by Mr. Arindam Roy, Secretary of the Murshidabad Zilla Itihas O Sanskriti Charcha Kendra and Curator of the Rakhal Das Bandyopadhyay Museum, Berhampore. He highlighted Bandyopadhyay's institutional legacy and underlined the need to integrate his contributions into the national historical consciousness.

An important announcement made during the seminar was that Sri Pat Singh College would commemorate the birth anniversary of Rakhal Das Bandyopadhyay every year to honor his memory and contributions. This initiative was warmly received and reflected the collective resolve to celebrate local legends who have remained underrecognized.

The program concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks by Dr. Emili Rumi, who expressed deep gratitude to all guests, speakers, organizing members, collaborators, and enthusiastic participants. She lauded the collaborative spirit of the seminar and stressed the importance of sustained academic inquiry into local history. Certificates of participation were distributed at the end of the session, bringing to a close a profoundly engaging and emotionally resonant academic gathering.

The seminar not only rekindled interest in Rakhal Das Bandyopadhyay's life and work but also instilled a renewed sense of pride in Murshidabad's cultural and intellectual heritage.
