Report on Vijaya Sammilani 2025

Sripat Singh College

The Vijaya Sammilani 2025 celebration at Sripat Singh College was held on November 6, 2025 (Thursday) at 2:00 p.m. in the Rabindra Sabhakasha of the college. The event was organized by the Sripat Singh College Family to commemorate the spirit of Shubh Vijaya—a time of reunion, joy, and renewed togetherness among all members of the institution.

The programme began with a warm welcome by the anchor, Mr. Somnath Bhattacharya, who set an engaging and cordial tone for the afternoon. The event was inaugurated with an invocatory song performed by Dr. Sharmila Dutta Banik, whose rendition created a devotional and festive atmosphere in the auditorium.

The inaugural speech was delivered by Dr. Kamal Krishna Sarkar, Principal of Sripat Singh College. In his address, Dr. Sarkar reflected on the college's enduring legacy of academic excellence and community spirit. He emphasized the importance of cultural events like Vijaya Sammilani in nurturing emotional well-being and fostering unity beyond classrooms. He also spoke about the collective achievements of the institution in recent years, the renewed focus on academic innovation, and the shared responsibility of teachers, students, and staff in upholding the values of empathy, inclusivity, and progress. His words resonated with pride in the college's heritage and optimism for its future. and then Smt. Shaoni Singh Roy, Honorable President of the Management Committee, highlighted the significance of Vijaya Sammilani as a symbol of collective harmony, celebrating the victory of good over evil, and fostering emotional bonds among students, teachers, and staff.

A major highlight of the occasion was the publication of the College Prospectus 2025 by Smt. Shaoni Singh Roy, marking its release after a long interval. The new prospectus represents the college's renewed academic vision, institutional development, and commitment to transparency and progress. Its publication was warmly appreciated by all present, symbolizing a significant milestone in the college's ongoing journey of growth and excellence.

The gathering was graced by several distinguished guests and members of the college community, including Mr. Debasish Singha Roy (Social Worker), Dr. Himadri Guha Thakurta (Bursar), Dr. Sagar Simlandy (IQAC Coordinator), Ms. Suraiya Yeasmin (TCS), and Mr. Faruq Abdullah. Their presence underscored the college's collaborative ethos and engagement with diverse sectors.

The cultural segment of the programme featured a sloke recitation by Sri Chhoton Goswami, Dr. Bivas Bhattacharya, and Ms Neha Tamang sang a beautiful song followed by a recitation performance by Mr. Sudip Chakraborty. The students' dance performances added a vibrant dimension, reflecting the joy and cultural richness of the occasion.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Swapan Kumar Sarkar, Governing Body Member, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all participants and organizers.

The Vijaya Sammilani 2025 successfully united the teaching, non-teaching staff, and students of Sripat Singh College in a shared celebration of culture, academic renewal, and institutional pride.
